

Court of Appeals, State of Michigan

ORDER

People of MI v Andrew Oakley Jr III

Docket No. 324179

LC No. 13-012954-FH

Judges

The Court orders that the motion to remand is DENIED for failure to present reasonable argument as to the grounds on which a remand is requested. No affidavit or offer of proof is provided as contemplated by MCR 7.211(C)(1)(a). In effect, defendant's appellate counsel merely refers to defendant's brief on appeal which is framed as presenting five issues with no clear indication as to which aspects of the issues warrant a remand. It is unreasonable for appellate counsel to expect this Court to guess as to why a remand might be warranted as opposed to presenting specific argument as to the bases on which this case should be remanded to the trial court.
